Palo Alto, CA – August 12, 2008 – The latest study by The Radicati Group, Inc., “Hosted Email Market, 2008-2012,” offers an in-depth analysis of the worldwide market for Hosted Email solutions and includes market trends, installed base and revenue market share by provider, four-year forecasts, breakouts by region, business size, and email platforms.

The study categorizes Hosted Email market as comprising of three segments: Hosted Business Email Providers, ISP/Webmail Providers, and Managed Email Providers.

Over the next four years, many SMBs will switch to Hosted Business Email solutions. With the introduction of Google Apps Premier Edition and Microsoft Online Services (MOS) in 2007, the Hosted Business Email market will continue to heat up, as these leading players help validate and drive the Hosted Business Email market.

Hosted Business Email providers are lowering prices and expanding their service portfolios to include value-added services, such as email archiving and compliance, email security, disaster recovery, wireless email support, making hosted email solutions more appealing to enterprises of all sizes.
